

Race: beginning (again)

October 27 - 28, 2017

Menno Haven Camp
and Retreat Center

www.mennohaven.com

From Charlottesville, to the repeal of DACA, to the NFL - racism is once again in the headlines. Of course, racism has never left us. Yet, today we are confronting different challenges, in the hope that peace with justice can be furthered.

At Race: beginning (again)?, we will explore three topics related to race.

1.) We'll begin with an overview and strategies for coming to terms with race and racism within ourselves.

2.) We'll spend time learning about White Supremacy - what it is, what it isn't, and how to work at it.

3.) We'll spend time learning about immigration, current challenges, and Latino identity and theology.

Our time will be divided between presentations by four presenters (Tim Peebles, Ric Hudgens, Krista Dutt and Martin Navarro) and group discussion, with an emphasis on next steps.

The primary goal of the weekend is to resource participants to start leading - or to continue to lead - in the area of race

Schedule

Friday Night

6 - 7	Registration
7 - 9	Session 1: Coming to Terms
9	Snacks and further conversation

Saturday

8 - 9	Breakfast
9 - 10:15	Session 2A: White Supremacy defined
10:15	Break
10:45 - noon	Session 2B: Engaging Together
noon	Lunch
1 - 2:15	Session 3A: Immigration
2:15	Break
2:45 - 4	Session 3B: Engaging Together

Registration

Cost is $50 and includes two meals, snacks and overnight lodging.

Register online at www.mennohaven.com or call (815) 646-4344

Additional details online at illinoismennonite.com
Email michaeldanner@mennonite.net with questions.

This event is part of the Practical Ministry Series, sponsored by

